

Requirements for Residential & Commercial Generators

Generator Permits require a registered electrician, and a plumber, if powered by natural gas.

Documents Required for permit application submittal:

- Survey or site plan showing the location of generator placement and the gas line to the generator
- Manufacture specifications of generator
- One-Line diagram
- Load Analysis/Calculation