

Finance Department

The City's Finance Department is responsible for cash management, debt management, budgeting, purchasing, financial reporting, rate analysis, utility billing, grant administration, information systems management, and municipal court.

We also perform traditional accounting functions such as accounts payable, accounts receivable, payroll, general ledger accounting, and financial reporting, including preparation of the comprehensive annual financial report.